What To Bring?

- Clothing: Pack layers for cool Cape Town mornings, warmer days and chilly evenings. Bring comfortable trousers, T-shirts, a sweater/fleece and a light waterproof jacket.
- Shoes: Comfortable walking shoes are essential. Bring sandals or casual shoes for relaxed evenings.
- Safari Essentials: Pack neutral-coloured clothing, sunglasses, sunscreen, a hat, binoculars and a small daypack.
- Weather Extras: Carry a warm layer for early safari drives, as open vehicles can feel cold. A compact umbrella or rain jacket is useful too.
- Electronics: Bring your phone/camera, power bank, chargers, memory cards and a South Africa Type M/N travel adapter.
- Documents: Carry your passport, South Africa visa (if required), travel insurance, flight documents and any required vaccination certificates.
- Money: Bring a bank card plus some South African Rand (ZAR) for small purchases, tips and personal expenses.
- Optional Items: Pack swimwear, insect repellent, reusable water bottle, snacks, eye mask and any personal medications.

MEAL ARRANGEMENT

- South Africa offers a wonderfully diverse food culture, shaped by African, Cape Malay, Indian and other influences. Expect colourful vegetable dishes, curries, rice, beans, fresh produce and local favourites adapted into delicious vegan meals.
- As with every Ubuntu Vegan Travel journey, we will carefully plan vegan meals throughout the trip, allowing guests to enjoy South Africa without worrying about finding suitable food.
- From Cape Town to St Lucia and Zululand, we will explore a mix of local flavours, vegan-friendly restaurants and specially arranged meals. Where possible, we will also introduce guests to traditional South African dishes in their plant-based form.
- During our Zulu community experience, we hope to include local food and cooking, offering another beautiful way to connect with the culture.
- Please let us know in advance about food allergies or special dietary requirements so we can plan accordingly.

VEGAN TANZANIAN FOOD

Vegan Bunny Chow

A Durban favourite featuring a hollowed-out loaf filled with a rich, spicy vegetable or bean curry. Hearty, flavourful and perfect comfort food.

Vegan Bobotie

A plant-based version of the Cape classic, made with spiced lentils or soy mince and topped with a creamy vegan custard layer.

Chakalaka & Pap

A colourful, spicy vegetable relish served with soft maize pap. One of South Africa's most loved combinations and naturally easy to make vegan.

Vegan Potjiekos

A slow-cooked South African stew prepared with veggies, beans and aromatic spices. Traditionally cooked in a cast-iron pot for comforting flavours.

Vegan Malva Pudding

A plant-based take on South Africa's famous warm sponge dessert, served with a rich vegan cream or custard sauce. Sweet, sticky and indulgent.
